The Daily Sentinel.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

Practical Reconstruction in the South.

Clover four feet high is a common thing near Rome, Ga.

Hardly a drunken man was to be seen in Montgomery, Ala., on election day.

It is proposed to improve the drainage of the city reserve in Macon, Ga., at an expense of $30,000.

A schooner called the Central City was launched at Macon last week. She is destined for Brunswick.

The South Carolina Railroad is laying steel rails in that part of the track in the depot yard as an experiment.

The agitation for a new Court House in Macon is revived with some show of success. Over $20,000 is already paid in.

The Montgomery (Ala.) State Journal, November 5, contains eight columns of bankrupt notices. Rubbing out and beginning anew.

The nut and sugar bearing trees in Virginia are beginning to attract attention from farmers and mechanics as valuable sources of profitable commerce. The pecan nut can be raised in great quantities.

It has been decided to hold a State Fair of the Agricultural Society of Georgia.—The City Council of Macon has taken the affair in hand. It is suggested that the Legislature appropriate $10,000 in aid of the undertaking.

The Augusta Constitutionalist, urging the importance of burning cotton stalks to destroy the breed of the worms, remarks that "roasted eggs will not hatch," which confirms the old proverb that there is reason in roasting eggs.

The editor of the Iuka (Miss.) Gazette is boasting over receiving a couple of ten gallon kegs of sorghum from a gentleman from the North, who is making this year an ocean of the article of fine quality in Tishomingo county.

The Marion Crescent says:—We have been informed that a planter in this vicinity recently received $180 for a bale of Zipporah cotton, which was sold in New York at fourteen cents per pound higher than the ordinary upland cotton.

The Yorkville (S. C.) Enquirer says:—On Monday last a considerable amount of land was disposed of at auction by assignees in bankruptcy. The prices realized in some cases show an improved feeling in this species of property. The bids were all for cash.

The Columbus (Ga.) Sun of the 4th. inst. says:—The general agent of the Southwestern Railroad Company notifies shippers of cotton that freights from Columbus to Savannah have been reduced to sixty cents per 100 pounds, and that five days' notice will be given when any change is to be made in rates.

The Fauquier (Va.) Land Journal makes a most encouraging exhibit in regard to the sales of Virginia lands and the accession of new settlers within the past twelve months. It says that "more than $500,000 worth of property has been sold to actual settlers within a radius of ten miles around Warrenton since the close of the war."

Parties from the North engaged in the shipbuilding interest are now here (says the Norfolk Journal,) at Armstrong's sawmill, getting out perfectly straight timbers for a ship to be built at New York. In that city they have newly invented machinery for bending the timbers of a ship to the required shape. Heretofore the difficulty with timber getters has been to get crooked stuff for timbers; now the difficulty is to get suitable straight stuff.

At a recent land sale in Houston county, Ga., a tract, containing 449 acres, about three miles from Fort Valley, and on which there were only moderate improvements, sold for $5,040. A tract lying immediately on the other side of the road from this, containing 300 acres, with no improvements, sold for $2,500. Another piece of land, containing twenty-four acres, and on which there were few improvements, and used as a tan yard, sold for $500. A half acre city lot in Fort Valley was also sold, belonging to the same estate, for $1,005.

The Charlottesville Chronicle says: "We are glad to see that our Virginia cloth factories are being gradually revived and are sending out even better cloth than before the war. We notice in one of our exchanges reference to the Buckland factory in Fauquier, speaking in high terms of the cloth made. Our Charlottesville woolen mills, which have only been in full operation for about six months, are now turning out cloth of as good quality probably as can be made in the United States. On a recent visit to Norfolk we saw it for sale there and, strange to say, the jobbing house which sold it there purchased it in New York. Made in Virginia, it had been shipped to New York and back and passed through several unnecessary hands, with a profit added each time of course, before it got back to the Virginia consumer. The fact, however, of its being selected in New York by the Norfolk merchant and brought back shows that it compares well with the goods from other places."

From the Petersburg Index.

THE LESPEDEZA, OR JAPAN CLOVER.

We have two or three times, in our local columns, called the attention of farmers to this new variety of clover, which is regarded in the South as superior in value to all other forage plants. It is also esteemed as being equally valuable as an improver of the soil. It has, without much aid from the hand of man, but chiefly by the agency of birds and animals, been extended over a wide area; and its appearance is everywhere hailed by Southern planters as an inestimable blessing. It has the merit of establishing itself even on impoverished fields, and taking full possession, in spite of broom straw and young pines, of brambles and Bermuda grass. It covers the soil with a dense herbage, striking its roots deep into the subsoil, and drawing therefrom materials for the use of the plant—the whole serving in a short period to renovate the surface, and render it capable of yielding new crops of grain.

We have the testimony of various writers of the highest respectability that the Japan clover possesses these merits. Mr. Ravenel, of South Carolina, an eminent botanist, contributed a highly interesting paper to The Land We Love, which was published in that periodical in last March. Since then, the Rev. Mr. Mott, of North Carolina, an esteemed clergyman of the Episcopal Church, has written several articles on the subject for the Southern Planter, the Farmers' Gazette, and the Richmond Dispatch.—By this time the plant ought to be pretty well known, by reputation, to the intelligent portion of the agricultural community.

That we have great confidence in these and other authorities, we are free to confess. Even after making much allowance for the enthusiasm of the writers, a wide margin is still left on which to base an estimate of the merits of the plant. Where every writer certifies to its value, it is certainly entitled to a good degree of confidence; and though it may be better adapted to a more Southern climate, where it is found to flourish as if indigenous to the soil, yet as it has made its way successfully to our next door neighbor's, there is every reason to believe that it is capable of holding its own here nearly or quite as well.

And here we cannot forbear citing a few of Mr. Mott's remarks: "I cannot but regard the plant, (he says,) whether we consider the readiness with which it takes hold and flourishes on any kind of soil, its astonishing powers of self-propagation by seed, or its inestimable value as a fertilizer, as a wonderful gift of God to this country just at this time. It is just the thing that we want—a thing that may be turned to profit with the least amount of labor of any thing I know of; that will enrich every inch of land it gets a stand upon; that will kill out sedge grass, and all other useless encumberers of the ground; that will preserve our fresh lands and restore the old; that will furnish large amounts of summer pasturage and winter provender; and, in fine, is fitted to revolutionize the whole agricultural system of the South, making it one of the finest stock raising and grain growing countries in the world."

That the Japan clover will grow as far North as Petersburg, and probably much farther, may be judged from the fact that the writer of this article procured a small quantity of seed last spring from a friend in South Carolina and sowed them in a poor spot in the garden in April. They soon came up, and the plants made a handsome growth during the summer, with a tendency to spread over the ground rather than to grow erect, but affording a quantity of herbage. The blossoms began to come in profusion about the middle of September, and the seeds to ripen from a month to six weeks thereafter.

Though this clover takes possession of the ground, it is never in the way of plowing or cultivation. Being an annual, it dies out in winter, leaving a full supply of seed to yield a crop the ensuing year, and, indeed, for years after the land has been in culture.

We would strongly urge our agricultural friends to try at least a single acre, if no more.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS, ERASTUS H. RAY, AND Christiana D. Ray, his wife, on the 9th day of June A. D., 1868, made and executed a mortgage to Robert G. Lewis to secure the sum of two thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine dollars and forty cents, ($2,279.40) payable to A. T. Stewart & Co., of the City of New York, which mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Wake County, on the 11th day of June, 1868, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in Book 36, page 104, and the above sum of $2,279 40 principal, and eighteen dollars and twenty-four cents, ($18 24) interest, is due on said mortgage on the 27th day of October—the day of the first publication of this notice; and whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by said mortgage, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises, by virtue of the power contained in the mortgage: which sale will be made by the subscriber, at public Auction, at the Court House door, in the City of Raleigh, on the 18th day of November next, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

The following is a description of said mortgaged premises:

One Lot in the City of Raleigh, lying on Wilmington Street, purchased on the 20th day of December 1865, by the said Erastus H. Ray of John Q Adams, and described in said Adams' deed as lot No. 150 in plan of said City, upon which there is a Brick House erected; being 59 feet 7 inches East and West, and fronting on Wilmington street 28 feet, with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging; and just, however, to a mortgage heretofore executed to B. F. Moore, for the sum of one thousand dollars and interest.

Also a certain other lot in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lots lately owned by Albert Johnson, W. W. Vass and W. D. Johnson, on the west side of New Street, running West 166 feet to W W Vass's line, thence South 50 feet to Albert Johnson's line, thence Eastward along said Johnson's line 164 feet to New Street, thence with said Street to the beginning; said lot being half of the lot purchased by W. W. Vass and W. D. Johnson of Thomas Bell, and by them conveyed on first October, 1863, to E. H. Ray, the latter deed registered in Register's office of Wake County, Book No. 23, page 141.

Also a tract of Land lying in the County of Wake adjoining the lands of W. H. Cunningim, the late Wm. Hill, and others, bought by said E. H Ray of John Ray, June 21st, 1867, and containing about 71 acres.

TERMS:—This property will be sold for Cash.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 18th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,723.

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

I am, respectfully,

HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No.	15,273	$5,000

"PEACE!"

The political waters, so long agitated and perturbed, are sinking to repose, except that, here and there, some bad spirit, that can only subsist on confusion and disorder, is seeking to lash them into further excitement. The storm is subsiding and the sea gulls are flying from the lately troubled waste, except that, here and there, one lingers and screams, in the hope that the war of the elements is not entirely over. We have before us, this moment, a large exchange list of Southern papers, with whom we have waged fight for the supremacy of the Constitution, and for the election of the gallant standard bearers who held that banner aloft. Without an exception, their tenor is pacific, acquiescent and manly. They submit gracefully to the result, and aver a determination to seek to guide that result to the best interests of the country possible under the circumstances. Their tone cannot be too highly commended, and is sufficient, one would suppose, to disarm resentments and excite admiration, instead of provoking jibes and sneers.

It is pleasant to observe that many, perhaps most, of the journals of the Opposition evince no such pusillanimous spirit. It is mainly reserved for North Carolina, which has been cursed, in a greater degree, than any other Southern State, with the agents of malignity and evil, to present the exception to the almost general rule. While the Democratic press and people are occupying themselves with thoughts of peace, discussing material interests, striving for the best and looking as hopefully ahead as the circumstances will permit, the organ of the Executive—the man who, above all others, should consult the tranquility of society and seek to put a stop to popular exacerbations,—is still crying out "rebel," "disloyal," "traitor," when recrimination would show him to have been a double traitor: first, to the Union, if any were traitors, and then to his own State! At such a time, when peace is in the hearts of all good people, menacing wagon loads of arms are trundling through our streets and emptying themselves into the State Arsenal, to be there issued to "loil organizations," with openly-avowed instructions that the only road to "peace" is to "crush out" and "trample under foot," what is stigmatized as the "rebel Democracy!"—by which is meant over one-hundred thousand of the best white men on the face of the earth.

For all this a pretext must be sought; and the pretext is as false and shameless as the spirit which invents it is mean and dastardly. We observe, by a telegram in the New York World, furnished by the intelligent correspondent of that paper, now in this city, who has had "a talk" with Gov. Holden, that he (the "Gov.") contends:—

"That as long as the existing State government is denounced as a usurpation by the leading democratic organ of the State, liable to be overturned at the point of the bayonet, it is only safe to guard against such a rebellious act."

It is unqualifiedly false that any Democratic paper has ever intimated the possibility of overturning the existing State government "at the point of the bayonet,"—desires such a thing,—dreams of such a thing,—would consive at such a thing,—would not use all its energies to defeat, discourage and expose any such attempt, if any individual could be found anywhere within our wide borders silly enough to think of it.

We all have our opinion as to the legality of the present government. We believe it to have been erected, "at the point of the bayonet," in utter defiance of the Constitution; but "might," while it cannot make wrong "right," has fixed that government upon us, and it will stand. We propose to aid it in all that it may do to conserve the interests of society and to advance the condition of the State and its people; we expect to denounce and oppose it in all that it does against these great objects. We propose to obey it and advise others to do so, but we do not expect to surrender our convictions as to the manner in which it was put upon us, or to affect it the more on that account. We propose, at the ballot-box, at the proper time, and in the modes prescribed by the very Constitution which these men have made,—and by the ballot box, only,—to change, if we can, such that is offensive, odious and unadapted to our condition in this State government. We expect still to hold up to the virtuous indignation of the people, if the occasion demands it, the derelictions of incompetent and corrupt public functionaries. If this be "treason,"—requiring the bayonet, the bullet and the sword,—why "make the most of it!" We shall see what will be the end of it.

THE LEGISLATURE.—It will be seen that there was barely a quorum in the lower House, on yesterday, and not a quorum in the Senate. We presume that both Houses, however, will get "under weigh," this morning.

Seventy-two persons have already been announced as "sure" of appointments in President Grant's cabinet.

SWISS IMMIGRATION.

We are glad to learn that the meeting, on Friday last, at Goldsboro', for the purpose of forming a practical emigration movement, was a decided success. It was gotten up on short notice, but there were fourteen counties represented, by a number of substantial men. The consultations of the meeting exhibited great unanimity and a purpose to encourage the movement. Numbers, not knowing what course would be taken and what would be required, and having had but little consultation with their neighbors, were not prepared to speak for others. Strong efforts were made, then and there, for obtaining 500 Swiss peasantry, but it was thought advisable to adjourn the meeting to Saturday, the 28th of November, to afford others the opportunity of making their arrangements.

We understand that Mr. Atkinson, of Johnston, and Mr. Trueb, the Swiss emigrant Agent, were appointed the Agents of the enterprise, who will sail for Europe early in December, with means to cover the necessary expenses of the emigrants. It is thought that, by the 28th. inst., some 1,500 or 2,000 will be spoken for. We understand that applicants for emigrants are required to advance $15 in gold for each emigrant, embracing men, women and children. This will be refunded in labor, by the emigrants themselves, as they shall be able.

The experiment, made some time ago, by the Messrs. Atkinson, is said to be working well. Already, emigrants are coming over at the suggestion of those who have been in the country a short time.

We beg leave to suggest, that those who go into the experiment should not expect to realize too much from these emigrants, by employing them on small wages. The change of climate, soil, food and their general surroundings must be compensated by the provisions which should be made for their comfort and health, looking for profit from their skill and industry, rather than from the small wages paid them. It is said that the laborers can be employed for $10 per month and found, and that house girls can be had at $6. For a few months, this may do, until they become fully inoculated into the new labors and scenes upon which they have entered, but we shall be greatly mistaken, if their steadiness and skill at field labor will not be worth more than this to the planter; though, of course, the wages of hands must be regulated by their efficiency and the amount required to feed them and their families.

We feel confident that the recuperation of the State, under the heavy pressure of private and public debt and taxation, cannot be effected without the increase of population and capital. This movement is a strike in the right direction. We hope, therefore, that the experiment will be fairly tried, and that everything will be done to provide for the health and comfort of the emigrants. A failure at this point would seriously interfere with its success.

THE ELECTION OF GEN. GRANT.

Prior to the election, the Radical press assured the public that the election of Seymour and Blair would block the way to recuperation in the South, at once, as Northern capitalists, in that event, would not risk capital in the South; but, if Gen. Grant should be elected, the South would immediately begin to revive under the influence of Northern capital and labor. Mere mercenary motives would never have led us to support any party or candidate, whose principles we did not approve. Hence we supported Seymour and Blair upon the Democratic platform, from principle, and under the conviction that their election would do more to revive the South than anything else.

If the statements of our Radical opponents were made in good faith, they will soon have an opportunity to prove the correctness of their declarations. Nothing, outside of the honor and integrity of the South, is so important to our people as the encouragement of their industry and enterprise. This can be speedily effected by an increase of the right kind of population and capital. Any accession to our enterprise and productiveness, and the increase of money, will be hailed by our people gladly. There is full verge in the South for the operation of all the surplus capital and labor of the North and of Europe, and we shall be glad to see them among us. We have no apprehension, however, that, so long as the necessities of the Government afford certain reliance to capitalists for the use of their money in Government bonds, but little of it will find its way South. The necessity, however, for an increase in the cotton products, as a medium of exchange with Europe, is our only hope for the flow of Northern capital among us. That necessity is now being felt, and may produce the effect which Radicals have predicted, as the consequence of the election of Gen. Grant.

Who ever heard of a pistol being presented at the head of a high State official in the South, to compel him to deliver a commission, until the carpet-baggers in Florida "tried it on?" This is a Yankee mode of civilizing the South, with a vengeance.

A COMMENTARY ON THE NEGRO CHARACTER.—On Saturday morning last, the wife of Wiley Tucker, a colored Democrat, died, and to such an extent had the feelings of resentment been carried against him among his race on account of his voting the Democratic ticket, that none could be found willing to assist in preparing her for interment.

This fact coming to the knowledge of the white citizens, a sum was raised among them sufficient to procure a very neat coffin and defray all other burial expenses, and on Sunday a large number of white gentlemen followed her to the grave and saw her decently interred. Several negro men in town, finding that the whites had taken the matter in hand and ashamed of their conduct, were also present at the burial and assisted in the duties pertaining thereto, but, as a race, they stood aloof, and carried their prejudiced feelings even to the grave.—Tarboro' Southerner.

On Tuesday, a Philadelphia German amused the third ward voters by asking for a "dicket mit Krant and Coalbox."

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Nov. 16, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock, according to adjournment,—the Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Caldwell, in the chair.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names, viz:

Messrs. Barnes, Bellamy, Brogden, Bond, Blythe, Davis, Eaves, Forkner, Galloway, colored, Lindsey, Long, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Respass, Robbins, Shoffner, Smith, Welker, Wynne, and Winstead—20.

There being no quorum present, the President announced the Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning at 12 o'clock.

[Messrs. Avery, Graham, Odell and Scott, Senators elect, have arrived in the city, and will qualify, when the Senate is organized.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Nov. 16, 1868.

The House was called to order at 12 o'clock, according to adjournment,—Mr. Speaker Holden in the Chair.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Pepper, Chaplain of the 40th. U. S. Troops, (colored.)

The Speaker congratulated the members upon their safe return, and trusted the proceedings of the session would be harmonious and productive of great good. Political excitement had abated, and it would be their highest duty to see to the development of all the interests of the State. In such enterprises, he (the Speaker) would assure them of his hearty co operation. He thanked them for their former support and encouragement, and, in conclusion, pledged himself to adhere to the strict line of justice and to walk in the path of duty.

The Clerk called the roll and the following responded to their names, viz:

Messrs. Speaker, Argo, Allison, Ashworth, Armstrong, Boddie, Blair, Barnes, Cary, (colored,) Cawthorn, (colored,) Ellis, Farrow, Ferebee, Gahagan, Gunter, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Hodnett, Hutchings, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (colored,) Hoffman, Hodgin, Hayes, (colored,) Hunsant, Hendricks, Ingram, Justice, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Long, of Chatham, Loap, of Richmond, Leary, (colored,) Laflin, Mayo, (colored,) Moore, Morrill, Morris (colored,) Mendenhall, McCaslers, Moring, Pou, Price, (colored,) Proctor, Ragland, Robinson, Reynolds, Simonds, Sweat, (colored,) Sykes, (colored,) Sinclair, Segrist, Stanton, Vest, Wilson.

Mr. Argo moved that the newly elected members present be allowed to come forward and be qualified.

Mr. Laflin raised the point of order, that, as no quorum was present, no business of any kind could be transacted.

The Chair said that in organizing at first, the House had to qualify members in order to commence the transaction of business, and he did not see why they could not now qualify members, elected to fill vacancies, who were now present, in order to secure a quorum, as no question was raised as to their qualifications or objection made to their credentials.

Mr. Argo's motion was then adopted, and G. Z. French, of New Hanover, W. H. Malone, of Caldwell, W. P. Welsh, of Haywood, and J. C. McMillan, of Duplin, were then sworn in, according to law.

The Speaker then suggested that a message be sent to the Senate, informing them of the organization of the House.

W. T. Hayes, colored, informed the Chair that the Senate was not in session; whereupon,

On motion of Mr. Laflin, the House adjourned until to-morrow morning, 12 o'clock.

Gen. Grant's Letter of Acceptance--Read it Again.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29, 1868.

To Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, President National Union Republican Convention:

In formally accepting the nomination of the "National Union Republican Convention" of the 23d of May, instant, it seems proper that some statement of views beyond the mere acceptance of the nomination should be expressed.

The proceedings of the Convention were marked with wisdom, moderation and patriotism, and I believe express the feelings of the great mass of those who sustained the country through its recent trials. I endorse their resolutions.

If elected to the office of President of the United States, it will be my endeavor to administer all the laws in good faith, with economy, and with the view of giving peace, quiet and protection everywhere. In times like the present, it is impossible, or at least eminently improper, to lay down a policy to be adhered to, right or wrong. Through an administration of four years, new political issues, not foreseen, are constantly arising, and the views of the public on old ones are constantly changing, and a purely administrative officer should always be left free to execute the will of the people. I have always respected that will, and always shall. Peace, and universal prosperity, its sequence, with economy of administration, will lighten the burden of taxation, while it constantly reduces the national debt.

Let us have peace!

With great respect, your obedient servant,

U. S. GRANT.

TRAGEDY AT SCOTT'S HILL—ONE NEGRO SHOOTS AND KILLS ANOTHER NEGRO FOR IMPROPER INTIMACY WITH HIS WIFE.—The sheriff yesterday received from the custody of a party of citizens, a negro man named Robert Cade, whom they charged with killing one Charles Hughes, another negro, on the place of Mr. W. T. Pope, at Scott's Hill, some fourteen miles from this city, that morning. The prisoner was immediately committed to jail, to await the investigation of the Coroner, who will proceed to the fatal spot where the body awaits inspection, this morning.

From what we can learn, the cause of the difficulty, which led to such a fatal termination, was in regard to the wife of Cade. He alleged that Hughes' intimacy with her was conducted in an improper manner and for this vowed revenge, and accomplished it in the manner stated. Cade is a young man about 24 years of age, and is said to be of a notoriously bad character.—Wil. Journal, 14th.

SOLDIER LAWLESSNESS.—We learn that on last Wednesday night, drunken colored soldiers were prowling all over town. One gang of these "sable warriors" went to the residence of Mr. Charles Smith, in the lower portion of the town, where they demanded an entrance. Mr. S. tried to correct them but was informed that they had come to cut his d—d democratic throat.

Mr. Smith fearing violence at the hand of these "braves" aroused his sleeping family and effected their escape through the back lot to a neighboring house.—Goldsboro' Messenger.

A little girl of two summers had learned to pass her plate at table. One dark night she awoke, reached out her little hand, searching for her mother, but in vain. She raised her voice: "Please, mother, pass your face."

Dr. Hall says that for the period of a month before marriage and a month after death, men regard their wives as angels.

THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE—A RESOLUTION DECLARING THE SPEAKER'S CHAIR VACANT.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 13.

Senator Cole, of Hamilton, introduced a preamble and resolution in the Legislature to-day, to the effect that, Whereas, D. W. C. Senter, the Speaker of the Senate, was a member of the Confederate Legislature of Tennessee under Isham Harris, has favored many acts oppressive of the Union people, and has been clearly guilty of conspiracy and treason against the government; that, whereas, he was clearly ineligible to office under the third section of the fourteenth article of amendment of the Constitution, all acts which he has signed as Speaker of the Senate are illegal, and therefore the Speaker's chair should be declared vacant, and the Senate proceed at once to the election of a new presiding officer.

This document created a great deal of excitement in the Legislature, as it was entirely unexpected. It lies over for action to morrow, when a stormy time is anticipated.

THE CUBAN EXPEDITION.—The filibustering movement is still engaging the attention of our citizens and it is still manifest to every one that we shall soon hear of a body of adventurers on the Cuban coast, either from this port or the port of New Orleans.

Yesterday a large number of recruits were [illegible], and it is believed that many of them left last evening for New Orleans by rail, so as to [illegible] city in vessels that will be ready for them in a few days. Col. Gibbons has his hands full, and it is more than certain a great number of commissions have been issued during the last twenty-four hours to officers.

Over a dozen men left yesterday on the Morro Castle for Havana, who carried commissions in their pockets to enlist men for service against Lersundi. It would be easy to give their names, but that would insure their arrest on their arrival in Cuba; so we therefore omit giving their names.—They carried no arms but revolvers, and got on board of the vessel very quietly, as our reporter was informed.

Gen. De Pallskoff, who is to have an independent command, left his lodging in Jersey City yesterday afternoon, to take the cars for Philadelphia en route for New Orleans, where he says he is to meet his braves and start with them on the war path. Colonels Radjewiesk and Lubormiski, both staff officers of the General, accompanied him on his journey, and they took with them two trunks full of revolvers. Gen. De Pallskoff informed our reporter that he was well aware that Murray's spies were tracing him from one place to another, and for that reason he was going to New Orleans.—N. Y. World, 14th.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. A GOOD MAN Leaveth an INHERITANCE

NEW YORK.

No extra charge for Females
No charge for Medical Examinat'n, Policies or stamps.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE

of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11,731, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, lived long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$14.92	$33.10	45	$28.67	$41.67

35	19.78	40 53	55	46.38	65 73
40	23.47	45.54	60	60.83	83 66

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a return of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

TONSORIAL.—Prempert, Barber and Hair-Dresser, holds forth in the neat and spacious basement room of the iron-front store of R. B. Andrews & Co. Prempert is perfect master of his business, besides being a most worthy citizen, who deserves encouragement and support. He was a good soldier in the "unpleasantness," but, razor and shears in hand, accepts the situation, in this custom, and will give you a delightful shave and a skilful toilet for the capital.

A DANGEROUS SPOT.—A citizen desires to call the attention of the City authorities to an uncovered well, which lies in the Baptist Grove, which is very dangerous to man and beast. It should be put in order, covered or filled.

COWARDIN'S LECTURE.—Remember the "Humors of Reconstruction" at Tucker Hall, this evening. Mr. Cowardin's imitations are described as admirable and side-splitting. It is better to laugh than to weep, in these gloomy days, and Mr. C's. Lecture will afford ample occasion for amusement, while it covers a serious moral. Go and hear him.

ST. MAUR.—It will be seen, by the announcement in another column, that this famous Prestidigitateur and Ventriloquist will commence a series of his brilliant Parlor Soirés, at Tucker Hall, in this city, on Wednesday evening. St. Maur gave great pleasure, on the occasion of his last visit to Raleigh, since which time he has improved his powers and cultivated other attractive novelties. We are sure that he will give the public a charming entertainment.

"DEMOREST'S MONTHLY."—The Christmas number of this admirably conducted magazine is out, and is really a gem. The fashions are profuse, the contents, literary and artistic, of the highest class. There is a beautifully illustrated holiday department, music, and each worth the cost of the magazine. We do not see how any lady can afford to be without it. It has, moreover, none of the frivolity of the ordinary class of fashion magazines, but much of the high tone and sensible, practicable character of the best European monthlies. Subscribe for it. $3 per year; with a premium. Published at 473 Broadway, N. Y.

ON DIT—That there is talk among the majority in the Legislature of re organizing the two Houses, with a view to getting rid of some of the present officials. The right to do so is based, it is stated, upon the fact that the present is the beginning of the regular session, and that the late session was of an extraordinary character. We can't see it—but it makes no difference to us how they fix it. It's a family affair, altogether.

SEVENTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—We have no further returns from this District. We still adhere to the belief that Mr. Durham is elected by a small, but sufficiently definite, majority.

DOCKERY'S majority in the Third Congressional District is even 2,000. The negroes of New Hanover gave him 1,670 of that.

GRANDMA little Onslow gives a Democratic gain of 155 votes.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says: "A very intimate personal friend of Mr. Seward says that functionary is making arrangements to retire from public life at an early day, and that but for the still unadjusted Alabama claims his resignation would take effect on the first of January next. According to the same authority, the venerable statesman intends to quit Auburn, and spend the remainder of his days in this city. He has the purchase of an elegant mansion in Madison avenue in contemplation."

An ugly old bachelor suggests that births should be published under the head of "new music."

LET HIM BE PROSECUTED.—Smith, the political scavenger, who was rewarded by Holden with the Presidency of the N. C. Rail Road, on account of his willingness to clean Holden's boots and do his dirty work in general, discharged from employment at Company Shops, on the 4th, instant, Messrs. John Wultsett, James Hudston, and Henry Bason, because they dared to act as freemen and vote the Democratic ticket. Was not this a violation of the law of the Radical Legislature, which punishes the employer for discharging hands on account of their voting? Undoubtedly it was. Let the law be enforced against Smith, or, the first thing you know, he'll not only dismiss men on account of their politics, but set those blood hounds on them that he hunted deserters with during the war.

If white men are to be thus proscribed because they oppose Radicalism, let us hear no complaints if the farmers of Caswell in future refuse to employ men that vote to degrade and ruin them—to put their county and State in the keeping of such fellows as Stephens and Carey, that favor a system of taxation ruinous to the farmer and everybody else except the office-holders.

The white men of Caswell can easily regain control of their county, by the farmers importing white labor, which can be done on a gradual scale, without suffering to the colored man, who can change the base of his operations, just as those white men the deserter hunter, Mr. Smith, dismissed, were required to change theirs.—Milton Chronicle.

A "LOYAL" JUDGE.—A scalawag named Sabin is the military appointee to the office of Circuit Court Judge in the Brenham, Texas, district. His fitness for the position may be judged from the following, [which appears in the Brenham Inquirer.]

On Saturday night's train arrived the Judge, beastly drunk. On Monday morning the Judge, after imbibing, attempted to reach the Courthouse, and, climbing up the steps, he succeeded in reaching the bench.—Court was called and then adjourned until the following day. The Judge was certainly the muddiest man, and exhibited the appearance of having been wallowing with the hogs. The next morning found the Judge in no better condition, but he finally managed to reach the stand shorn of the extra mud. Court was adjourned. On Wednesday morning he announced his intention of going down on the train. When asked what he would do with the court, he said, "Let it go to h—ll." "Then, Judge, what will you do about the grand jury now sitting?" He remarked, "Let them sit till they hatch."

The above is the plain, unvarnished statement of facts, as we have seen them, and needs no comment at our hands. The Judge is a military appointee.

A dispatch was duly forwarded to General Reynolds, setting forth the condition of matters, and asking the appointment of some proper person to hold this term of the court.

ALASKA.—The Vancouver Register publishes the following extracts from a private letter dated Fort Kodiac, Alaska, August 22:

"The country is not so bad as represented. Grass grows up to the height of six or seven feet, looks like timothy, and is very sweet. Of wild fruit the Salmon berry is the most plentiful and largest. I have seen specimens two inches in diameter. In flavor they bear a close resemblance to a raspberry, but differ in size, form, and color. It is summer time now, but at this place it is quite wet and foggy. Potatoes and other vegetables do not grow to any size. I have seen a hundred of the largest sized potatoes raised in this region stowed away in a quart cup. The Indians around here seem to be a very peaceable people, being mostly exemplary members of the Greek Church.—Though possessed of a smattering of religion, many of their customs are extremely primitive, not to say barbarous. In stature the men will not average over five feet. In the line of industry they form no exception to the traditional Indian character, doing so much, and no more than necessary, for prolonging the union between body and soul. Their staple and almost exclusive article of food is fish, with which nature has provided them an abundant variety. The post to be called Fort Kenay is anything but a desirable habitation. Nature evidently designed it as the abode of the mosquitoes and wild animals which at present enjoy (and should for all time to come) undisputed possession. In winter snow falls to the depth of six or seven feet, and the prospect for a winter's stay is suggestive of anything but pleasing anticipations. From an exploring party which I met in Kenay harbor, I learned that important discoveries had lately been made on the Kenay River, and that the party were prosecuting their researches with the hope of developing something still better."

ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD A BANK.—Yesterday afternoon James Henderson, a well dressed and respectable appearing English man, entered the banking house of Henry Clews & Co., No. 32 Wall street, and sold some bonds and stock amounting to $951,50, for which he received a check for that amount on the Fourth National Bank. Henderson then left the office, and at about 2:30 he entered the Fourth National Bank, corner of Pine and Nassau streets, and presented for payment the genuine check of Clews & Co., but ingeniously altered from $951,50 to $95,110,-50. Mr. Conover, the paying teller, in receiving the check, noticed that the signature was genuine, but the amount being so large he scrutinized it more carefully, and at once detected the alteration. Perceiving that Mr. Conover hesitated about paying the check, Henderson became alarmed and started for the door. Here he was intercepted by the porter, who suspected that something was wrong. The fugitive knocked the porter down and rushed into the street, but was followed by some of the bank clerks and captured. Henderson was taken back to the bank and subsequently given into the custody of Officer Fitzsimmons, who conveyed him to the New street Police-station, where he was locked up for the night. He will be arraigned before Justice Dowling this morning.—N. Y. World, 14th.

It is of more consequence to study human nature than books, since the latter originate from the former. Human nature is at the top and bottom of things. It our, and the world would be at sea, and in black night. If your education is to be limited to one branch, choose the largest and best—human nature.

"I wish I had your head," said a lady one day to a gentleman who had solved for her a knotty point. "And I wish I had your heart," was the reply. "Well," said she, "since your head and my heart can agree, I do not see why they should not go into partnership." And they did.

The best reading is what we get out of each other's faces. What volume so interesting as a lady's pretty face? And who does not want to read it through and through, and repeat the perusal next day?

"There now," cried a little girl, while rumaging a drawer in a bureau—"there! Grandpa has gone to heaven without his spectacles; what will he do?"

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16, P. M.

John F. Smythe has been appointed Supervisor for the Northern District of New York.

McCulloch has ordered the dismissal of twelve Inspectors from the Philadelphia Custom House.

McCulloch and Rollins had a long interview to-day.

Several Supervisors will be appointed to-morrow.

The Comptroller of Currency recommends the redemption of National Bank notes in New York, and prohibiting the payment of interest on Bank balances by Banks in the City of New York.—The report contains the usual statistical information, showing the condition of Banks, without taxes paid on lawful money, reserve, &c. Twelve Banks have organized since the last report.—Nineteen are winding up and four have failed.

Rollins has issued stringent orders to gaugers about stamping and branding whiskey barrels.—Neglect will lead to immediate dismissal. The orders include this paragraph:

'Collectors and other seizing officers are instructed to detain or seize any and all casks or packages of spirits, guaged after the receipt of these instructions, which are not marked and branded as required by the instructions, series 4, number 7, and the supplement thereto, and forthwith will report the facts to this office. The owner of the spirits will find it to his interest to insist that the guager does his work correctly."

A large number of printers have lately arrived, seeking places in Government Printing Offices.

The Superintendent answers that he has sufficient force now, and has already made engagements to meet all business demands in the future.

FROM NEW YORK—GENERAL GRANT "PARTICULAR"—EARTHQUAKE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16, P. M.

General Badeau, of General Grant's staff, stated, to-day, in answer to a question as to whether General Grant intended to be present at Mr. Evart's dinner, that it would depend on whether Secretaries McCulloch, Welles or Post Master General Randall would be among the guests, as the President elect did not desire to meet either of these gentlemen

Four distinct shocks of earthquake were felt at Elizabeth, New Jersey, last night, at a quarter past ten o'clock. The four shocks continued about twenty seconds. Chairs, Tables, Beds and other articles of furniture were swayed to and fro.

THE CHARLESTON ELECTION.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 16, P. M.

The trial of the contested election case has progressed quietly, to-day, although excited crowds surrounded the City Hall. Eminent counsel are engaged on both sides. The impression prevails that the election will be adjudged to have been irregular and illegal.

FROM FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 16, P. M.

At the meeting of the Supreme Court, on Wednesday next, Gov. Reed will apply for a quo warranto on Gleason to show by what right he holds the office of Lieut. Governor of the State Gov. Reed claims that Gleason was ineligible when he qualified,—not having been a citizen of the State three years.

There is in type, to be issued to-morrow, a circular in the interest of Saunders, the independent colored candidate for Congress, from the "Unterrified Tiger Committee of the Republican party of Florida," and signed by some fifteen prominent colored politicians, calling for a hearty support of the voters, in the coming election, on the 29th. of December.

DEATH OF BARON JAMES ROTHSCHILD.

PARIS, Nov. 16, P. M.

Baron James Rothschild, head of the House, is dead.

FOREIGN.

MADRID, Nov. 16, P. M.

There was an immense demonstration, on Saturday, in favor of Monarchy. Fifty thousand were present. Olozaga, Martoi, Serrano, Prim and Topete spoke, amid much enthusiasm.

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade, &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

NOTICE.

THE OFFICE OF THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURance Co. has been removed to the upper rooms over the Clothing Store of Messrs Andrews & Co., and adjoining the Messrs. Tucker's Hall, where the public are invited to an examination of all the official Reports of the various Insurance Companies of America. Their progress and standing may thus be easily and reliably ascertained. The progress of the old Ætna, as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met over sixty thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over and one hundred and thirty dollars to pay every one hundred of her liabilities. To the weary and anxious enquirer for a place of safe investment, call while in health and strength upon the subscriber and obtain from $1,000 to $20 000.

WE'VE ALL OUR ANGEL SIDE.

The huge rough stones, from out the mine,
Unsightly and unfair
Have veins of purest metal hid
Beneath the surface there.
Few rocks so bare but to their heights
Some tiny moss plant clings,
And round the peaks so desolate
The sea-bird sits and sings;
Believe me, too, that rugged souls
Beneath their rudeness hide
Much that is beautiful and good;
We've all our angel side.

In all there is an inner depth,
A far off secret way
Where through the windows of the soul
God sends his smiling ray;
In every human heart there is
A faithful sounding chord
That may be struck, unknown to us
By some sweet loving word
The wayward heart in vain may try
Its softer thoughts to hide
Some unexpected tone reveals
It has an angel side.

Despised and low, and trodden down
Dark with the shade of sin,
Decyphering not those Holy lights
Which God hath lit within,
Groping about in almost night,
Poor prisoned souls there are
Who guess not, what life's meaning is
Nor dream of heaven afar.
Oh! that some gentle hand of love
Their stumbling steps would guide
And show them that amid it all
Life has its angel side.

Brutal, and mean, and dark enough,
God knows some natures are,
But he, compassionate, comes near
And shall we stand afar?
One cruse of oil will not grow less,
If shared with hearty hand;
For words of peace, and deeds of love
Few natures can withstand.
Love is the mighty conqueror,
Love is the beauteous guide,
Love, with her beaming eye, can see
We've all our angel side.

[From the Guardian.]

THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY—LAST HOURS OF THE DECEASED PRIMATE.

The good old Archbishop of Canterbury was seized almost suddenly with Bronchitis on the 13th. of September, while on his way from the Tyrol. He reached Addington, on the 16th., and was able, though with difficulty, to hold his ordination in the parish church, on the following Sunday. Two or three times he rallied so much that hopes were entertained that his robust constitution would enable him to shake off the disease. On the evening of Thursday week the unfavorable symptoms increased, and from that time he was confined to his bed. His mental powers remained uninjured, and he was occupied unceasingly in reading devotional books, or in writing or giving instructions concerning his charge, which he had almost completed, though he had quite given up the idea of delivering it orally. He anticipated the end almost from the first, and in a paper written three or four days ago, when speaking was become difficult to him, he said, "I commit my soul into the hands of my God and dear Saviour. I have had proofs enough of His love in the past, and I am well assured that whatever sufferings or trials are permitted to befall me are visitations of love. 'Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him.' As to the faith in which I wish to die, I cannot better express it than in Richard Hooker's dying words, as indicated in the underlined passage I have written out. A poor and guilty sinner I know myself to be; but I believe that those who kneel at the foot of the Cross with this sincere confession will never be cast out if they look to the cleansing blood of Christ for their sole ground of pardon of acceptance." The following is the extract from Hooker: "Though I have by His grace loved Him in my youth, and feared Him in mine age, and labored to have a conscience void of offence to Him and to all men; yet if Thou, O Lord, be extreme to mark what I have done amiss, who can abide it? And, therefore, where I have failed, Lord, show mercy to me; for I plead, not my righteousness, but the forgiveness of my own unrighteousness, for His merits who died to purchase pardon for penitent sinners. And since I owe Thee a death, O Lord, let it not be terrible, and then take thine own time. Let not mine, O Lord, but thy will be done."—On Sunday his Grace appeared decidedly better, but on Monday afternoon the disease changed for the worse, and from that time he sank rapidly. He received the Holy Communion about midday on Tuesday, making all the responses with a cheerful and happy face. His last intelligible words were those of the "Gloria in Excelsis." But his looks and gestures proved how eagerly he joined in the prayers and ejaculations which were said with him during the day, and never was there seen a more beautiful peace than that of his last hour. About six he became unconscious. The members of his family, with his medical attendant, Dr. Carpenter, and Mr. Benham, the Vicar of Addington, were with him to the last; and he died, in the middle of the words of commendation, so quietly that the last moment was not perceptible.

A MODEL LAWYER.—"Squire Johnson" was a model lawyer, as the following anecdote will evince:

Mr. Jones once rushed into the Squire's office in a great passion. "That infernal scoundrel of a cobbler, Smith, has sued me, Mr. Johnson—sued for five dollars I owe him for a pair of boots!"

"Then you owe him the five dollars!"

"To be sure I do; but he's gone and sued me—sued me!"

"Then why don't you pay him, if you owe him?"

"Because he's sued me; and when a man does that, I'll never pay him till it costs him more than he gets. I want you to make it cost him all you can."

"But it will cost you something too."

"I don't care for that. What do you charge to begin with?"

"Ten dollars; and more if there's much extra trouble."

"All right! There's the X. Now go ahead!"

No sooner was his client gone than Squire Johnson stepped across to his neighbor Smith and offered to pay the bill, on condition that the suit should be withdrawn.—The shoemaker gladly acceded—all he wanted was his pay. The lawyer retained the other five for his fee, and as the case was not "troublesome," made no further demands upon his client.

Ten days after Jones came in to see how his case was getting on.

"All right!" said the lawyer. "You won't have any trouble about that. I put it to Smith so strongly that he was glad to withdraw the suit altogether."

"Capital!" cried the exulting Jones. "You've done it up brown! You shall have all my business."—Harper's Drawer.

Scene in Richmond: Sable gentleman, in the voice of Stentor: "Tatoes!" Coffee-colored dame: "Hush dat racket, you distracts de whole neighborhood." Sable gentleman: "You kin hear me, kin you?—Coffee-colored dame: "Hear you? I kin hear you a mile!" Sable gentleman: "Thank God for dat! I'a holleria' to be heard. "Tatoes!" With which cry he touched up his lean horse and moved on.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper. Its circulation is extensive and increasing, and it is a capital advertising sheet. We have no better paper in the State. Price of Daily, $10 per annum. Weekly $3. Address ENGELHARD & PRICE,

Wilmington, Sept. 4 tf Proprietors.

THE MORNING STAR, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is a young Daily, still in its first volume and, by its sprightliness and energy, has a growing circulation. It is a warm supporter of Seymour and Blair, and is doing good service. It is a good medium for advertisers and merits the patronage of the public. Price of Daily $5 per year. Address W. H. BERNARD,

Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE SOUTHERNER, TARBORO', N. C.

Our friend, Capt. Biggs, is giving to the public a capital Weekly, ardent in its advocacy of Democratic principles. It is located in the rich Cotton County of Edgecombe, and in one of the prettiest villages of the State, among an energetic people. It has a good circulation and advertising patronage. Price $3 per annum. Address WM. BIGGS,

Tarboro', Sept 4 tf Proprietor.

SEMI-WEEKLY INDEX, HENDERSON, N. C.

This is an excellent Conservative journal, conducted with spirit and energy, and well deserves the patronage of the public. It is located on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, in a fine Wheat and Tobacco region, and is an excellent advertising medium. Its terms are moderate. It is now published weekly at $3 per annum, and on the 1st of October the Semi-Weekly will be issued at $5 per annum. Address FURMAN & NEWBY,

Henderson, N. C., Sept. 4 tf Proprietors.

THE RECORDER, HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

Dennis Heartt, Esq., the oldest Editor living in the South, continues to publish the Recorder, and, though nearly ninety years of age, performs the duties of Editor and Foreman of his office—His paper indicates the quiet, truthful and reliable character of its Editor. It stands up for the Constitution and the Union, and supports Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address

Sept. 9-tf DENNIS HEARTT.

ROANOKE NEWS, WELDON, N. C.

This is an excellent Semi-Weekly paper, published at the junction of four Railroads. It is located in a fine corn and cotton country, and is well conducted. It is thoroughly Democratic. Its circulation is good and it is a good advertising medium. Price $5 per annum. Address STONE & UZZELL,

Weldon, N. C. Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

WARRENTON COURIER, WARRENTON, N. C.

The Proprietor, I. H. Bennett, is giving his readers a good Weekly Democratic journal. It is located in an excellent Wheat and Tobacco region, and among an intelligent population. It is a good advertising sheet. Price $3 per annum. Address I. H. BENNETT.

Warrenton, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE TRANSCRIPT, EDENTON, N. C.

This excellent Weekly has been revived recently and deserves patronage. It is published in a good Corn, Wheat and Cotton section, and in the midst of the best fishing portion of the State—It goes warmly for Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address WM. BRENAN.

Sept. 9-tf

THE PLAINDEALER, WILSON, N. C.

The Proprietor, C. S. McDaniel, Esq., is publishing one of our best Weeklies. It has a good patronage and is a good advertising sheet. It is located in the handsome, growing village of Wilson, and is a devoted Democratic journal. Price $3 per annum. Address C. S. McDANIEL,

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.
